

A Few Facts About Corsets

In Our Corset Department.

It is a fact that you will find more perfect molded Corsets for $1.00 in this department than in most Corset departments.

THAT our Corset sales doubled the past year.

THAT we possess the only new departure from regular Corsets that has been discovered in the past twenty years.

THAT we have the only Corset at $1.00 and $1.25 for stout people that will not break at the waist line.

THAT we sell a Girdle for 50 cents that is equal to most one-dollar Girdles.

THAT for one week we will sell two styles of Loomer H. C. Steam Molded Spiral Spring Corsets of the $1.00 kind at only 79 cents per pair.

THAT we will sell the balance of our $100 American Beauty Corsets for 79 cents per pair.

THAT out of our stock of C. B., A-La-Sprite, H. C., American Lady, Nemo, R. & G. and Cresco Corsets you can secure a satisfactory fitting, whatever your figure may be, with satisfaction guaranteed.

TRIED TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

J. C. Weld, Deputy Collector, Overcome by Nervous Prostration.

West Berkshire, Nov. 3.—It has leaked out that J. C. Weld, deputy collector of customs at this place, made an attempt to commit suicide last week Tuesday. He had bared his throat and was apparently intending to shoot himself either there or in the breast with a revolver when detected and restrained by his son, Mr. Weld, so it is said, is confined to the bed by nervous prostration.

The air is full of gossip and rumors as to the motive for the act, as is usual in such cases, but thus far the reports are of such an uncertain character as to hardly justify their publication at this time in the proper fear of doing injustice to innocent men by their wider dissemination. Capt. George W. Burleson, of the headquarters staff of the collector of customs in Burlington was in town Wednesday, and Collector Olin Merrill himself came here Sunday.

WASHINGTON.

At the Cheney auction in Washington yesterday the farm was sold to Glenn Bigelow for $1,725, the best cow selling for $48.50. There was a good attendance and fair prices were realized for the personal property. C. N. Barber was the auctioneer.

WARNING.

Whereas a petition signed by more than thirty legal voters of the City of Barre has been presented to the Mayor, praying that a special meeting of the legal voters be called at an early date as practicable, for the purpose of acting on the second article mentioned herein. The third article herein is inserted in accordance with a vote taken at a meeting of the City Council held November 2d, 1902.

Therefore the legal voters of the City of Barre are hereby notified and warned to meet in the City Hall at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of Monday, November 10th, 1903, for the purpose of acting upon the following business:

First—To choose a Moderator to govern said meeting.

Second—To see if the legal voters of the City of Barre will vote to pay to W. C. Quinlan his claim for taxes unjustly and illegally collected from him for the years 1899, 1900, 1901 and 1902.

Third—To see what action, if any, the City will take in furthering the project of an exhibit of Barre granite at the St. Louis Exposition, to be held in 1904.

Fourth—To do any other proper business. Dated at the City of Barre, Vt., this 4th day of November, 1903.

J. HENRY JACKSON, Mayor.

D. W. SAXE IN SHELDON.

Relative of the Poet Now a Resident of London, England.

Sheldon, Nov. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. De Forest W. Saxe of London, England, were here yesterday and today calling on friends. Mr. Saxe was born in Sheldon and lived there about 20 years. He went to Omaha, Neb., and engaged in the drug business for several years. Seven years ago he entered the National Cash Register Co. of Dayton, Ohio. Two years ago he was sent to London, Eng., as managing director for the company. Mr. Saxe has now 100 agents in London under his management. Mr. Saxe has not been here for 24 years. He is a relative of John G. Saxe the poet.
